

Marine Weather ASA 119

RECOMMENDED STUDY BEFORE CLASS

Please read Modern Marine Weather book.

Students should read the textbook chapters and complete the corresponding Workbook exercises prior to each class.

Course Outline for Evening Class

Day 1: Introduction. Pressure and Wind.

Day 2: Global Wind and Currents. Strong Wind Systems.

Day 3: Clouds, Fog, and Sea State. Wind and Terrain.

Day 4: Weather Maps Review. Sources of Weather Data.

Day 5: On-board Forecasting and Tactics. Special Topics. Test Review.

Day 6: Examination.

Course Outline for Saturday Class

Day 1: Introduction. Pressure and Wind. Global Wind and Currents. Strong Wind Systems.

Day 2: Clouds, Fog, and Sea State. Wind and Terrain. Weather Maps Review. Sources of Weather Data.

Day 3: On-board Forecasting and Tactics. Special Topics. Review and Examination.

Students enrolled in courses which lead to Marine Weather Endorsement will be responsible for all material contained in Modern Marine Weather.